

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mrs. and Mr. Edgar James, of the Southern Piedmont, who have been spending a few days here with relatives, left yesterday. They are on their way to Italy, Southern Europe and many fascinating points in the Orient, and expect to spend several weeks in cruising the Mediterranean. Before their return they will go to Africa, visiting Egypt, Cairo and many points along the Nile, being away from their home in Alabama for several months.

Miss Winston at the Club Monday.
At the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon Miss Anne Stegar Winston will delight her hearers by readings from some of her unpublished manuscripts, as Miss Winston, both as a writer and reader, is quite popular with Richmond women.

At the coffee table Mrs. John C. Robertson and Mrs. Leand Hankin will preside, and Mrs. Pleasant Conquest will be at the tea table. Assisting these hostesses will be Mr. W. S. Gordon, Mrs. Howard Hoge, Mrs. Rolfe Glover and Miss Helen Montague.

At Home This Afternoon.
The last of a delightful series of afternoon at home Mrs. Hugh M. Taylor has been giving on Fridays during January will be held this afternoon after 4 o'clock in her home, No. 6 North Fifth Street.

For Mrs. Coster.
Mrs. and Mr. Marvin Kerfoot Coster, of Pittsburgh, are visiting Mrs. Coster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Griggs, at No. 1109 West Avenue. Mrs. M. A. Sanderson will entertain at bridge in their honor on Saturday evening, and several other charming entertainments are being planned for them.

"The King of Kong."
Society is already planning to entertain the "King of Kong" when they come down from Charlottesville on the 17th to present their musical comedy from the talented pen of Mr. Neville Henshaw, a Charlottesville alumnus. It is a gay, bewitching, humorous play, including many handsome men and lovely ladies, who, amidst gorgeous semi-tropical scenery, will carry out the fascinating plot of the story.

The scene is laid upon some unknown Southern Piedmont island, and the Oriental costumes and Turkish features are weirdly beautiful. Several of the songs written especially for "The King of Kong" are the work of Lieutenant Abney Payne, of the United States Coast Artillery, also an alumnus of the University of Virginia.

Such songs as "Just Plain Mame," "If a Bugle Could Tell What It Knows" and "The Peacock and the Crow" are quite unusual and attractive. Mr. Don Cameron, who as Detective Clew in last year's "The Sergeant" made such a decided hit, assumes the role of the King in the present cast. Mr. Bernard Jones and Mr. Pendleton Turner, of this city, will be in the chorus, while Mr. William Miller will impersonate a cute Oriental dame.

A. P. V. A. Meeting.
The central committee of the Association for the Preservation of the Virginia Antiquities will meet on Tuesday, February 23, at noon, in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society.

To Present Crosses.
Crosses of honor will be presented at Lee Camp Hall on Friday night, after the presentation of General Armstrong's portrait. Veterans from Lee and Pickett Camp and from the Soldiers' Home are expected to be present and receive crosses.

Chappell-Goodman.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Goodman, in Balls Bluff, was the scene of a pretty marriage on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Mary E. Chappell, became the wife of Mr. Bennett Goodman. The bride was attired in a going-away gown of brown, with hat and gloves to match, and was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Polley, of Richmond. The groom was in white with his brother, Mr. G. C. Chappell, Rev. C. B. Smith, assisted by Rev. Samuel Hatcher, of Farmville, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends and the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Chappell left on the afternoon train for Farmville, and thence to Merrihew, where they will make their future home.

"An Evening in Venice."
Mr. Arthur B. Clarke will give an illustrated lecture, "An Evening in Venice," for the benefit of Central Mothers' Club, Friday evening, January 29th, at 8 o'clock, in the assembly hall of the club.

There will be no admission fee, but a silver offering at the door. Members of the Federation of Mothers' Clubs and of all mothers' clubs and the public generally are invited.

To Give Entertainment.
The Northside Orchestra will give an entertainment in the lecture room at Leigh Street Baptist Sunday school on February 1. A silver offering will be taken at the door.

In Honor of Miss Mackay.

Miss Huber is a charming hostess, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Among her guests were Misses Alva Steele, Hilda Miller, Dr. B. Steele and Messrs. Edgar Lincoln, W. B. Chamlin and W. O. Rosenberry, of White Post.

Enjoyable Dance.
A most enjoyable evening was spent at the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Garrod, "Mansville," near West

Why Ivory Soap, or any other, should be a valuable insecticide is hard to explain, but it is a fact. It has the advantage of not making the bushes unsightly as Bordeaux mixture does.

SALARY BILL IS PASSED BY HOUSE

Committee's Action Is Turned Down and Cotten's Amendment Approved.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RICHMOND, Va., January 28.—After a heated debate that touched much on politics, the House to-day turned down the Committee on Appropriations and passed the bill increasing the salary of the Commissioner of Labor and Printing exactly as it had passed it on second reading some days ago. The House disregarded the favorable report of the Committee on Salaries and Fees, increasing the salary from $1,500 to $2,500, and passed Representative Cotten's amendment for $2,000.

The Senate passed the drainage bill on second reading; also the Empte bill preventing the sale of quail and grouse for food.

The bill providing for appointment of inspectors of electric gas and water meters in cities and towns was passed on final reading by the upper branch, as was the bill increasing the salary of the Assistant State Librarian from $600 to $900 a year.

Among the new bills introduced in the House, one by Mr. Morgan makes it unlawful for any employee of a railroad to take from a mileage book more than the actual miles to be traveled, violation to be punished by fine of $100 to $1,000 and liability to the aggrieved party in the penalty of $300.

A similar bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator Godwin.

Under the euphemistic title "For Betterment of Public Schools and Training of Children for Their Life Work," Representative Perry introduced a dog tax bill, the net proceeds to go to the county school fund.

Mr. Davis put in a like bill, calling it "A bill to tax dogs."

Representative Cotten proposes in a bill introduced by him to tax the gross receipts from the sale of cigarettes, cigars and tobacco 10 per cent. where coupons, tags, bands or box fronts are given or sold for premiums in connection with the sale.

Returned are required to be made to the county commissioners, giving gross receipts and number of coupons delivered.

The House Judiciary Committee No. 2 will report unfavorably Representative Grant's bill prohibiting teachers of the State educational institutions from employing labor or doing any mechanical work or taking any contract for mechanical work. This was the bill aimed at the professors of the A. and M. College, who sometimes employ these services of agents who work mainly for the experience. There was an objection from the organized labor men of Raleigh, and the committee heard President Jack Miller, of the State Federation, and several local machinists.

The vote was almost strictly a party division of the committee, although one Republican voted with the majority.

The House bill to allow more days of grace for slight draft has been acted upon unfavorably by the Finance Committee.

The Joint Committee on Appropriations gave a hearing to the commissioners of the Alaska-Yukon Exposition for the resolution appropriating $25,000 for the State exhibit. Action by the committee was deferred.

COCAINE AND PISTOLS.
Combination Ends Disastrously for Men in Norfolk.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., January 28.—Charged with the sale of cocaine and carrying concealed razors, W. B. Kirby and W. H. Fleming were arraigned in the Police Court to-day, the former being convicted of both offenses, and the latter convicted of carrying a concealed weapon.

Kirby, who claims to be from New York, was fined $50 and costs for the sale of cocaine, and $20 and costs for carrying the razor. Fleming was fined $20 and costs for carrying the concealed weapon.

Kirby claims that he is a trained nurse, and for this reason had the morphine. He claims a woman begged him for some of it, and he sold her 25 cents' worth, needing the money. The evidence showed that the two were soliciting the trade of a woman, and that Kirby sold the drug. They were charged with the act of accepting the money for the drug by patrolmen.

The woman who bought the drug corroborated the testimony of the patrolmen.
